 SPECIAL SALE OF CATTLEYA HYBRIDS

These plants are all selected varieties that have been grown for cut-flowers by a commercial grower who is now forced to sell them because of too many other business interests. We are handling these at a very small charge to the present owner and we know there are many choice colors and varieties among them. All are flowering size plants, most are in need of division or larger pots. They are all excellent buys and will not last long at these prices.

If you wish we will reserve your selections and ship them to you when weather conditions permit. But order early or you may be dissatisfied as this offer is of course limited to the stock on hand and they are selling fast.
